NoviceMediumNoneAnother player who has not yet completed the quest. Note: If you require a partner for this quest you can post in this topic to request some help.20-40 Coins.None.11 quest point, 600 coins.Varrock Palace LibrarySpeak to Reldo. Speak to Reldo in Varrock Palace library and tell him that you are in search of a quest. He will ask you to look for a book titled 'The Shield of Arrav'. Search the bookcase, that has a distinct blue book in it, to find the book. Read through the book to learn about the Phoenix and Black Arm gangs. Speak with Reldo again, and he will tell you to talk to Baraek in Varrock Center. Head to the fur stall in the marketplace, and ask Baraek about the Phoenix gang. He will only give you the information if you give him 20gp. Hand over 20gp and he will tell you the location of the Phoenix Gang Headquarters. Walk south towards the exit of Varrock. You will find Charlie the Tramp in one of the alleys. Ask him if there is anything down the alleyway. He will tell you that the headquarters of the Black Arm gang is located down there. Ask him whether they would let you join. He will tell you to talk to Katrine at the Black Arm headquarters. At this point, the walkthrough changes depending on which gang you join. Your friend and you should have joined different gangs. Follow the walkthrough titled for which gang you have joined. Your friend should follow the walkthrough for the gang they have joined If you have chosen the Black Arm gang, then proceed down the alleyway near Charlie the Tramp into the house at the end. Once inside, talk to Katrine. Tell her that you know about this place and that you would rather not reveal your sources. She will ask what you want. Tell her that you want to join the gang and ask her to give you a try. She will ask to steal a couple Phoenix crossbows from their rival gang. Meet up with your Phoenix Gang friend. Have them trade you the Weapons store key. Proceed to the building marked Weapons Storage on the map. Open up the door with the key and climb up the ladder. Kill the level 23 Weaponsmaster and pick up the two Phoenix crossbows. With two Crossbows, head back to Katrine. Talk to her, and give her the crossbows. You are now an official member of the Black Arm gang. Go through the door to the north into the main part of the headquarters, and take the stairs to the second floor. Open and search the cupboard to find half of the broken shield. At this point both you and your friend will take the same steps, so please proceed to Wrap up. If you have chosen the Phoenix gang, then head south of the Varrock East Bank to an ! mark signifying a dungeon. Go into that room and climb down the ladder. You will now be in a dungeon. Talk to Straven and choose 'I know who you are!'. After the dialogue, he will ask what you want, choose to offer your services. He will tell you that in order to show loyalty to the Phoenix gang you will need to kill Jonny the beard and bring back the intelligence report he has in his possession. Go to the Blue Moon Inn bar, near the Varrock Marketplace. Inside you will find Jonny the beard (level 2) walking around, choose to attack him. Once he is dead, pick up the Intel report that he drops. Take this report back to Straven. Once back at the Phoenix gang headquarters, talk to Straven again and give him the Intel report. You are now an official member of the Phoenix Gang and will receive a Weapon store key which will allow you to access the weapon depot. Go through the door next to Straven and walk all the way to the back of the area. You will end up in a room with a chest in it. Open and search walk the chest to find half of the broken shield. Leave the headquarters, and go meet up with your Black Arm Gang friend. Trade them the Weapons store key and have them kill the level 23 Weaponsmaster. Also tell them to pick up the two Phoenix crossbows it drops. At this point both you and your friend will take the same steps, so please proceed to Wrap Up. Now that you both have half the shield, meet up again and walk to King Roald at the Varrock Palace. He will tell you that you need to get the authenticity verified by the Curator of the museum. Walk to the Varrock Museum. Use your half of the broken shield on Curator Haig Halen. He will look at half the shield and give you 2 half reward certificates. Your friend should also talk with the Curator, as they will also receive two half certificates for their shield half. Trade with your friend and each of you should give one of the two certificates you received. Use the two halves on each other to make the full certificate. Return to King Roald to claim your reward. Print this page with images - Back to the Quest Guide Index Page - Back to Top This quest has a quick guide found here.It briefly summarises the steps needed to complete the quest. This article is about the quest. For the shield, see Broken shield. For the book about the shield, see Book (Shield of Arrav). Shield of Arrav is a quest where the shield of the famous Arrav of Avarocka has been stolen by organised crime syndicates in Varrock. Official description “ Varrockian literature tells of a valuable shield, stolen long ago from the Museum of Varrock, by a gang of professional thieves. See if you can track down this shield and return it to the Museum. You will need a friend to help you complete this quest.” Details Varrock Palace library. Talk to Reldo, the librarian, located at the northern end of Varrock Castle Novice Varrockian literature tells of a valuable shield, stolen long ago from the museum of Varrock, by a gang of professional thieves. See if you can track down this shield and return it to the museum. You will need a friend to help you complete this quest. Medium A trustworthy friend or partner. Players can join the official clan chat "Osrs Soa" to look for a partner. Setting up It is very important at this time to decide which gang you wish to join. This choice is important for two reasons: You need a member of the opposite gang to cooperate with you in order to complete this quest.* This choice will show up for future quests if you decide to become a member. Most notably, the Heroes' Quest has gang related activities where item trading between both gangs is also an important feature. If you are a killer/skill pure, you can choose the Black Arm Gang, and have your partner from the Phoenix gang drop-trick the weapon store key while talking to Straven to get a duplicate, and have them give that key to you. Then you can both enter the store room and they can kill the weaponmaster while you get the crossbows. Being a member of the Phoenix Gang is recommended if a player has lower combat levels, or is a skill pure. Choosing the Black Arm gang is favourable as it makes the overall process quicker and easier for you as there are many more Phoenix members to match up with. If your partner has combined the two half pieces to create the complete certificate or has completed the quest, they cannot obtain the half piece of the shield from their gang hideout - which means certificates cannot be obtained from them. If your partner is from Phoenix Gang, they can help you acquire the key to the weapon store only. To find a partner for the quest, it is recommended to check the Old School RuneScape forums. There is an official clan chat, Osrs Soa, which can be used for finding another partner for this quest, in addition to Heroes' Quest. It's recommended to put off joining a gang until you can find a partner! Warning: Although the majority of players in the OSRS SoA clan chat offer their services for free, some players also charge in-game money. Players should always be aware of the possibility of getting scammed when engaging in trust trades with other players. Walkthrough Items required: None. Note: If you wish to join the Black Arm Gang, you can start the quest by simply talking to Charlie the Tramp and asking what is down the alley. Talk to Reldo, located in Varrock's library, in Varrock Palace. Ask him for a quest, and he will tell you there is probably a book on something in the library. You have to now check the bookcase with a blue book in the top shelf. When you've found it, read or skim through it. After you've read the book, speak with Reldo and ask him about the whereabouts of the Phoenix Gang, but he tells you to go to Baraek, the fur trader in Varrock Square, because he doesn't know. At this stage, you can either join the Phoenix Gang or the Black Arm Gang. If you wish to join the Phoenix Gang, speak to Baraek. Otherwise, talk to Charlie the Tramp, next to the southern gate of Varrock. Ironmen can save 7708 coins while doing the Heroes' Quest later by picking the Phoenix Gang. Phoenix Gang Items required: 20 coins, and a weapon (optional but recommended). Baraek is located in the centre of Varrock. (To join the Black Arm Gang, go talk to Charlie the Tramp.) He buys and sells furs, and his stall is marked with an icon of bear fur. Talk to him and ask about the Phoenix Gang. At first, he will refuse, then he will want you to give him 20 coins for info. Give him 20 coins, and he will tell you it is located in the south-east corner of Varrock. Ask him all the questions available. The hideout is near the south-east corner of Varrock between the two bars. It is a bit south of the rune shop. Look for a red exclamation mark (on your map) to find the hideout. When you've found the red exclamation mark, you will see a ladder. Climb down it to enter the Phoenix Gang's hideout. The entrance to the Phoenix Gang hideout. Inside the hideout, talk to Straven. If you ask to join, he will mention the Varrock Herald newspaper. This is a cover up. There should be an option to tell him that you know who he is, a member of the Phoenix Gang. Straven will want you to kill Jonny the beard (combat level 2). He is located in Varrock's Blue Moon Inn. This bar is located near the south entrance of Varrock. Go inside the bar and find Jonny the Beard and kill him. Note that killing him with a ring of recoil won't make him drop anything. Jonny will drop a report, which Straven needs. Grab the report and bring it back to Straven. Talk to Straven while having the report in your inventory, and he will make you a Phoenix Gang member, allowing you to enter their hideout. Straven will also give you the Weapon store key, which you need to save for your partner. The thieves walking around are not aggressive to any players, but will retaliate if you attack them. Look around for a chest in the south-west corner of the hideout to find one half of the Shield of Arrav. You can only grab one shield at a time, and you can no longer obtain it after completing the quest. Black Arm Gang Items required: food and a weapon (both optional but recommended). The entrance to the Black Arm Gang hideout. To join the Black Arm Gang, talk to Charlie the Tramp located near the south entrance of Varrock. Ask him what's down the alley, and he'll tell you that it's the Black Arm Gang's hideout. Go down the alley and enter the building. Look for a woman named Katrine and talk to her. Tell her you know about her gang and that you won't give your source. Ask her about what you should do to prove that you're trustworthy, and she will give you a task to join her gang. Katrine wants you to steal from the Phoenix Gang. She wants two of their crossbows. However, you will need a partner in the Phoenix Gang for this part of the quest. Your partner must give you the Weapon store key they obtained when they joined the Phoenix Gang. Once you have the key, go toward the Phoenix Gang's hideout in the south-east corner of Varrock between the two pubs. Look for a small room directly south of the rune shop with a locked door and a ladder visible inside. When you've found it, use the key with the door and climb up the ladder. You will have to kill the Weaponsmaster on this floor. If you try to pick up the crossbow without killing the Weaponsmaster first, he will prevent you from doing so. Once he is dead, take two Phoenix crossbows. When you have both of them, go back to Katrine, and she will make you a member of the Black Arm Gang. Go upstairs in the hideout and look for a cupboard, which contains one half of the Shield of Arrav. Note: If you are worried about the battle, you can ask your partner to kill the Weaponsmaster himself and simply trade the Phoenix crossbows to you. Finishing up Items required: Shield of Arrav half Take your half of the shield to Curator Haig Halen, located in the Varrock Museum. He will take your half of the shield and give you two copies of half the certificate. Your partner, who has the other half of the Shield, will receive the other half of the certificate. Trade one half of the certificate with your partner for the other half. When you have both certificate halves, use them on the other to obtain a completed certificate. Take the certificate to King Roald in the castle to receive your reward. Quest complete. Rewards 1 Quest point 600 coins Notes If a player cannot find someone to trade the certificates with, they cannot finish the quest. If a Phoenix Gang member tries to talk to Katrine, she spits on them and does not allow them to join the gang. A Black Arm Gang member can enter the Phoenix Gang Weapon Storage with a key from a Phoenix Gang member. Phoenix crossbows can be obtained by Phoenix gang members by going into the weapon store and telekinetic grabbing them. However, the crossbows must be traded to a Black Arm gang member in order to gain trust to Katrine. If working with additional players who want to get the half of a certificate from you, it would be wise to take the half certificates to the bank, store them, grab another shield half from your respective gang house and present it to the Curator. There is no practical limit to how many certificate halves you can have, but it is a tedious process going back and forth to the Curator and the gang stronghold. Note: Once you combine both halves of the certificates in your inventory you can no longer get spare shields. You can have only one shield half in your inventory at any given time. Also, keep in mind that once you have completed this quest, you can no longer obtain the shield half any more, although you can continue to keep certificate halves in your bank account indefinitely after you have completed the quest or trade for them with other players. If completing the quest as an Ironman you must 'use' the key/certificate on each other Trivia Shield of Arrav was one of the 6 quests available during RuneScape's launch. Once a player finishes the quest, they can no longer take any halves of the shield from their storage places. However, players can still acquire the halves of the shield from other players (via trading, drops, or general stores). In the beginning, a bug allowed the player to join both gangs. Katrine would appear angry at the player, but the player would still be able to enter the Black Arm Gang. The Phoenix gang doorman would also attack the player. In the early days, entering the Phoenix Gang's headquarters required a separate key. This was later changed, and the key was removed from the game. The shield is currently on display (display number 24) at the Varrock Museum after you speak to the curator on the second floor and tell him how you recovered the shield for the museum. Before the shield is put onto display in the Varrock Museum, it mentions "King Roald has offered a 1,200gp bounty for the reward of the shield and we keep this display case empty in the hopes it will one day be returned." However, King Roald rewards the adventurer only 600gp for quest completion - half of the advertised offer from the display case. This is probably due to the fact that your partner gets the other half. Required for completing
